Elf Run 2023

Mr Gale will be co-ordinating our annual fundraising run for Barnsley Hospice and School Funds.

Formerly known as the Rudolph Run, this year's Elf Run will take place on Thursday 7th December. All children should have brought home a sponsor form and letter this week and we thank you in advance for your continuing support.

Springwood Superstars

We have two Springwood superstars to celebrate this week. Firstly, please see super Reece from Oak Class. He swam at the Bonfire Bash Swimming Gala in Leeds and came away with a Gold medal in breaststroke and two silver medals in backstroke and the cannon relay. The smile and the thumbs up say it all. Well done Reece!

Lovely to see our younger generation taking pride in their local community, whilst Jax's older brothers played football, he cleared all around the football pitch.

Well done Jax and thank you for your hard work this evening. You're a litter picking superstar 🌟

Our second feature is one of our KS1 children from Silver Birch class who was recognized for his community spirit. Jax and his class took part in a community clean up day recently and it is lovely to see him keeping up the hard work outside of school. Well done Jax!

Friday Celebration SHINE award winners this week are:

Kian, Archie, Oskar, Faye, Pippa,
Colton, Rhett, Kasey-Mai, Abdullah,
Louie, Isaac, Millie.

Together we SHINE.

Cinderella at Barnsley Civic

Children have brought home a letter this week with information about a whole school visit to Barnsley Civic Theatre to watch their Christmas Pantomime—Cinderella. Tickets are priced at £10 per child and payment should be made by Friday 8th December.

Its behind you!..... Oh no it isn't!

Children in Need

Last Friday we celebrated Children in Need throughout school.

Children and staff came in non-uniform and embraced the 'Wear your spots for Pudsey' theme. Mr Gale also ran a special competition to raise money for CiN and the children all loved trying to guess the member of staff from their school photo's. The winner was Sonny in Oaks class who won a goody hamper.

Overall, we raised £123 for Children in Need.
