Dear Parent / Carer in The Hub and Resource Provision

As you are aware some teaching unions have advised their members of their “legal right” not to return to their classrooms next week amid serious health and safety fears.

I am writing to inform you that your child’s class teacher is following the guidance of their union and will not be teaching their class as normal from tomorrow. As your child is classed as a vulnerable child, they are able access school as usual. The teaching assistants are in school and the face to face teaching will be led in school by the HLTAs.

Thank you for your continued support in these difficult times.

Yours Sincerely,

J. Hunt

Mrs Jennifer Hunt
